

Other Information

The Mountain Woodworker provides a variety of quantity discounts and a special referral policy.

The color of our products may change with time and other conditions such as temperature and humidity. If you would like to have a pen made from a specific type of wood or from wood that you supply the color and grain of the wood cannot be guaranteed. All pens made by the Mountain Woodworker are hand crafted and thus do not have the precision that machine made pens would have

For furniture restorers and home builders we also make custom corbels and spindles.

Mission style sofa made of Cherry and Sycamore

Furniture

The Mountain Woodworker specializes in making Shaker and Mission style furniture. We strive to maintain the simplicity, beauty, and craftsmanship of these styles. Our signature pieces often use contrasting light and dark woods such as maple and cherry, or birch and walnut. Generally the lighter woods are used for the structural parts of the furniture such as legs, rails and frames. The darker woods may be used for stiles, panels, and accent parts.

Pens

Our custom wood pens are made of exotic woods from around the world like none you have ever seen. They are all hand turned, one at a time, to assure the finest quality of writing instrument possible. They provide you with a comfortable writing seldom found in other pens. To assure your satisfaction we have a variety of styles and woods to choose from.

Whether for personal use or as a gift your hand-crafted pen will provide a unique writing experience. Made of quality components and a unique design they are a great conversation a starter. As a gift, their beauty tells others that you didn't just run out to a store and bought a cheap gift.
